An essential skills snapshot

Essential skills are the foundational skills people need to participate effectively in all areas of their lives - home, community, learning, and work. They are the building blocks, or the foundation, that let people learn new skills...Read more

We're the family, youth and adult literacy and essential skills centre for excellence.

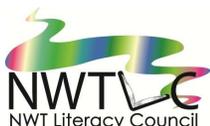

We support literacy and essential skills in all the official languages of the Northwest Territories.

We're also plain language specialists.

We want your best recipes please

We're producing another Great Food for Northern Cooks cookbook. Please send us your best recipes for us to use in the book. We'll send you a free copy.

Submit Your Recipe

Do you have a recipe that everyone asks you for? Do you love using local, traditional ingredients in your cooking?

You could have your recipe published in the second version of Great Food for Northern Cooks cookbook, produced by the NWT Literacy Council and Yellowknife Health and Social Services Authority.

Submit your recipe by February 10th, 2017

Each recipe chosen will feature the author's name and community, and the author will receive a copy of the cookbook.

News, Opinion, and Research

Fully funding junior kindergarten? Not this fall, says NWT government

Regular MLAs are disappointed the NWT's government promise to fully fund the expansion of junior kindergarten won't apply to the coming 2017-2018 school year. The funding model unveiled on Wednesday, if approved by a majority of MLAs, could still force school boards in the territory to reallocate money from their own budgets...Read more

Reconciliation and Indigenous libraries in schools

In late 2016 a newspaper article about a Nanaimo school that was building an Indigenous-authored collection of books for the school library caught our eye. The school had a small nucleus of books but wanted to build up their collection with titles that would appeal to all reading levels...Read more
