National Family Literacy Day 2018

This year marks Canada's 19th year of celebrating National Family Literacy Day each January 27. Family Literacy Day is a national initiative of ABC Life Literacy Canada to raise awareness of the importance of reading and engaging in other literacy-related activities as a family. Family Literacy Day reminds us to take time to learn together for the benefit of both adults and children...Read more

We're the family, youth and adult literacy and essential skills centre for excellence.

We support literacy and essential skills in all the official languages of the Northwest Territories.

We're also plain language specialists.

Announcements and Events

'Tis the season for wellness fairs

We participate in as many community wellness fairs as we can. It's a great chance to meet new people and share our resources. Charlotte was in Jean Marie River this week, with a table of good things to share with families. She tried her hand at making drymeat too. We plan to be at fairs in Nahanni Butte, Colville Lake, Deline, and on the Kátł'odeeche Reserve in February.

We'll be at the Festival of Silliness on Saturday

To celebrate National Family Literacy Day, we'll be at the Northern Arts and Culture Centre Saturday, January 27 with free activities for families from 2-4 pm. What are you doing to celebrate? We'd love to hear from you.
