Our Blog

The importance of libraries

October marks Canada Library Month. If recent news stories are any indication, an event to highlight the importance of, and to celebrate libraries, is needed more than ever...Read more from guest blogger John Mutford, of the Northwest Territories Library Association.

We're the family, youth and adult literacy and essential skills centre for excellence.

We support literacy and essential skills in all the official languages of the Northwest Territories.

We're also plain language specialists.

The Social Deficit: How much faster will charities have to run to stay in the same place?

As a sector, we are often focused on the present. In the last few decades, charities and nonprofits have grown more quickly than the economy as a whole, as the sector has met rapidly growing needs. This rapid growth has been based largely on demographic and cultural factors...Read more

Social entrepreneurship or social economy: Does it make a difference?

Social entrepreneurship is increasingly popular among Canadian youth. Its popularity stems from a variety of reasons, including changes in values and career aspirations, as well as an increase in the availability of infrastructure supporting this trend...Read more
