

Adult Learners' Week, March 29 – April 6, 2014

Enter our 'Who do you learn from?' photo contest

March 29 to April 6 is Adult Learners' Week, a week to celebrate the accomplishments of adult learners.

We all learn every day. We learn in many different places and from different people.

Enter the NWT Literacy Council 'Who are you learning from?' photo contest for a chance to win a Kobo eReader.

We invite lifelong learners to upload photos to our Facebook page that show who they are learning from. The 'who' you learn from could be a formal teacher, a friend, a child or even a pet. We will draw one lucky entry to win a Kobo eReader.

This contest celebrates the hard work of all lifelong learners. We send special congratulations to hard working learners in NWT adult education programs and a big thank you to all the people who support adult learning.

Visit www.facebook.com/NWTLiteracyCouncil to show us who you learn from!

You can also enter this contest by sending photos to nwtliteracy@nwtliteracy.ca. All submitted photos will be posted to our Facebook page and Twitter feed.
