

Empowering Northern Youth Program

Application Form

Deadline to Apply: 5pm on July 3rd 2023

The Empowering Northern Youth through Career Development (ENYCD) program is a tri-territorial effort between the Yukon Literacy Coalition, the NWT Literacy Council and Ilitaqsiq Nunavut Literacy Council. This project is funded by the Government of Canada’s Youth Employment and Skills Strategy. These sessions will contain:

- 4 weeks of classroom learning where students will earn credentials such as first aid, food safe, or WHMIS, as well as workplace skills and ‘soft skills’ such as communication, teamwork, and leadership.
- Cultural elements and may include on the land learning.
- 2 weeks of work placement with local partner employers.

Timeframe:

Monday to Friday, 9am to 4pm*

*Each cohort will have a slightly different schedule. Some days will go until 5pm to allow for special training, and some weeks may go into the weekend (Saturday & Sunday) to allow for on the land learning.

Each group will have 4 weeks of classroom time and 2 weeks of work placement. These may fluctuate based on cohort needs and work placement availability.

You are currently registering for cohort 2 which will start the week of July 10th and end the week of August 18th. Exact dates are being determined to allow for on the land learning, however participants need to be available to start the week of July 10th.
