It's Free Money!

Children are eligible if ...

They were born after

& You receive the National Child Benefit Supplement (family allowance)

1

Get a Social Insurance Number (SIN) for your child.

This can be done through a regional Canada Service Centre or when a Canada Service Centre agent comes to your community.

2

Set up a Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP)

You have to go in person to a bank, credit union or other RESP provider.

Students say money is a major barrier to post-secondary education.

Spread the word! Only 8% of eligible NWT children receive this free money!

$$$500 + $100/\text{yr} \times 15 = $2,000$$

Your child could get $500 plus $100 each year, until they turn 15 years old for a total of $2,000 to use towards their post-secondary studies.
