

Family Literacy Tips for Parents

Make one night a week television free!

Read recipes together and bake something really special.

Have a board game night. Invite another family for a challenge.

Create a family scrapbook about your last vacation, holiday or your dreams for the future.

Have a special night for singing and telling stories with your family and friends.

Read to your children everyday.

Write a story with your children.

Attend a family literacy night or any special literacy events in your community.
