

Did you know?

Students are more likely to go on to post-secondary if there is money set aside for their future.

What can RESP savings be used for?

Any full or part time studies:

- university
- college
- trade schools
- apprenticeships
- CEGEPS

For information or help
Contact the NWT Literacy Council

867-873-9262
1-866-599-6758
nwtliteracy@nwtliteracy.ca
www.nwtliteracy.ca

For further information contact:
Canada Education Savings Program
1-888-276-3624

Canada

This project is funded in part by the Government of Canada's Canada Learning Bond Program.

MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

Do you want to save for your child's future education?

The Canada Learning Bond and the Canada Education Savings Grant can help. Find out which program is right for you.

Who is eligible?

Canada Learning Bond

- Children born in 2004 or later
- Dependent on your family income and the number of children in the family.

Canada Education Savings Grant

- Anyone under the age of 15
- Anyone can contribute to a child's RESP

Canada Education Savings Program

Up to a maximum of $7200

The Canada Learning Bond will cover part of your child's education. You won't need to contribute any money to get the Canada Learning Bond.

Through the Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG), the government adds to the savings you contribute for your child's education.

How do I join the program?

For both the Canada Learning Bond and the Canada Education Savings Grant, you need to open a Registered Education Savings Plan, or RESP.

Online

www.Startmyresp.ca/NWT

You will need:

- Your child's Social Insurance Number (SIN)
- Your (the parent's) SIN

The bank will contact you to make an appointment.

In Person

Visit your local bank with:

- Your child's SIN
- Your (the parent's) government issued photo ID and SIN