

Indigenous Languages Month 2022

Let's Go Fishing Adult Bingo

|   |  |   |  |  |
|---|--|---|--|--|
| Name 5 fish using your Indigenous language  | Learn to count to 10 in an Indigenous language. If you dare, post a video of yourself with hashtag #NWTILM | For 1 full day, say "thank you" using your Indigenous language                            | Introduce yourself using one of the 9 official Indigenous languages of the NWT                               | Learn the terms for your community, region, and the territory in your Indigenous language        |
| Learn about the Mentor Apprenticeship Program at ece.gov.nt.ca/en/MAP | Go for a walk or a drive and name as many things as you can in your Indigenous language                    | Play a game of Go Fish in your Indigenous language  | Post a picture of the weather on social media and describe it in an Indigenous language. Use hashtag #NWTILM | Follow someone on social media who promotes Indigenous language revitalization                   |
| Make a goal to learn or speak more of your Indigenous language. Share on social media with hashtag #NWTILM      | Listen to an Indigenous language program on the radio  | For 1 day, begin all of your text messages with greetings in your Indigenous language     | Follow the NWT Literacy Council on social media  | Lead with your Indigenous language in all conversations for 1 hour                               |
| Use hashtag #NWTILM on a post today   | Learn to say "Let's go fishing" in your Indigenous language  | Ask a friend or someone you work with to teach you something in their Indigenous language | Name the 9 official Indigenous languages in the NWT  | Make fish chowder for dinner using the ILM 2022 Fish Chowder Recipe                              |
| Post a picture of your fish chowder with hashtag #NWTILM  | Offer someone tea or coffee in an Indigenous language  | Speak in your Indigenous language to a child  | For 1 meal, speak only in your Indigenous language   | Post a photo of a local fish species and its name in an Indigenous language. Use hashtag #NWTILM |

*Your Indigenous language can be the language your family speaks or the language spoken in the community where you live.*

Visit <https://www.nwtliteracy.ca/indigenous-languages-month> to learn about prizes and more!

Take a photo of your BINGO card and submit by February 28th to: NWTILM@nwtliteracy.ca

Add comments/photos of your Indigenous Languages Month 2022 activities or post them on social media #NWTILM

Name: _____ Community: _____ Number of lines completed: _____