Celebrate NWT Literacy Week 2018 September 23 to 29

Dear Partner:

This year we are celebrating NWT Literacy Week from September 23 to 29. We encourage you to celebrate with our theme of Everyone in the Kitchen! Cooking together is a great opportunity to teach skills to young children, to add numeracy to tasks, and to spend time together as a family. Our recipe booklet includes many ways to include all family members in each step of the preparation and cooking process.

Your package contains some ideas and activities that you can use to celebrate NWT Literacy Week in your community. While these resources are in English, we encourage you to celebrate your language during NWT Literacy Week.

- Literacy calendar
- Literacy Matters newsletter
- Everyone in the Kitchen! Recipe booklet
- Cooking and Counting Magnet (for Early Childhood programs)
- How did you celebrate NWT Literacy Week 2018? Fax back form
