

Interesting Places in Canada

By Jason Tsetta

Yellowknife

- Yellowknife is the capital of the Northwest Territories. It is a pretty big city to live in and is a great place to stay. They have fun things to do in that city and is a good city to celebrate the entertainment and celebration.

Vancouver

- Vancouver is the capital of British Columbia, it is a big city in our country and I think it is a good place to live. It is a peaceful city and is a nice and quiet place to stay.

Edmonton

- Edmonton is the capital of Alberta. It is a big city too. People that stay there like it and is a peaceful place to live. I like that city because it is a good place to live with your family.

Toronto

- Toronto is the capital city of Ontario. It is a big city. They got a good city to stay and live in. It is a fun city to live in. The city of Toronto has many features and entertainment to celebrate.

Why I Chose These Places

- I have lived in Yellowknife my whole life.
- I travelled to Vancouver with my family when I was a boy.
- I have travelled to Edmonton a lot for different events. I also lived there with my family when I was 13. We stayed for two years.
- I travelled to Toronto when I was a kid. I walked up the stairs of the CN Tower.
